Special Events

- ❖ ICSST was among the co-sponsors of SHU's third annual Contemplative Community Week (September 19-23, 2022). This was a week of presentations, meditation, prayer, and contemplative practices aimed at inviting the whole SHU community to promote holistic well-being, to enter into study more thoughtfully and deeply, and to form stronger personal and communal bonds. Events and resources for the week were shared in a variety of modalities – in-person and virtual, indoor and outdoor, synchronous and asynchronous.

Patrick R. Manning, Ph.D., Associate Professor and Chair of Pastoral Theology, served as coordinator of Contemplative Community Week, collaborating with multiple SHU units to plan the week's events. Additionally, Dr. Manning moderated a Kata Holos Conversation Series event, at which he and Marianne Lloyd, Ph.D., Professor of Psychology, discussed what it means to strive for wholeness in one's life, what practices and resources support this wholeness, and what sometimes gets in the way. This event was held at SHU, on September 22, 2022. Twenty-four people registered to attend. A recording of the conversation is available at <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=UoDCyrf9Fl4>

- ❖ Twelve ICSST faculty members gathered for a retreat day, convened by Reverend Monsignor Gerard H. McCarren, S.T.D., Interim Rector/Dean, and Associate Professor of Systematic Theology. The retreat, which included time together for prayer and discussion, was held at Villa Pauline, Mallinckrodt Convent, Mendham, NJ, on September 23, 2022.

- ❖ The Seton Hall University Core, Catholic Studies Program and Center, and Immaculate Conception Seminary School of Theology are co-sponsoring a Scholars' Forum in the Catholic

Intellectual Tradition, conducted virtually via Microsoft Teams. As part of this forum, Ellen R. Scully, Ph.D., Associate Professor and Chair of Undergraduate Theology, presented on her recently published co-edited book, *New Narratives for Old: The Historical Method of Reading Early Christian Theology: Essays in Honor of Michel René Barnes*, on September 28, 2022. Approximately 22 people attended.

- ❖ ICSST's Center for Diaconal Formation hosted a Diaconal Leadership in Real Life retreat, at St. Mary's Abbey, Morristown, NJ, from September 30-October 2, 2022. Thirty-three people participated. The retreat was part of the diaconate initiative under ICSST's Lilly grant project, The 4:12 Pathway for Pastoral Leadership: Building an Authentic Culture of Discernment, Encouragement, and Accompaniment. Among the attendees were national participants including Deacon Ray Duplechain, M.A., Director of the Diaconate for the Archdiocese of New Orleans, LA, and former Chairman of the National Association of Diaconate Directors, and renowned speaker and author Deacon James Keating, Ph.D. Local participants included senior diaconate leaders, deacons and deacon candidates, wives of deacons and deacon candidates, and priests from the Archdiocese of Newark and the Dioceses of Paterson, Metuchen, and Trenton, along with ICSST faculty and staff. The retreat focused on building collaboration and relationships within and across the leadership teams of our sending dioceses and explored the challenges and opportunities for diaconate formation. As part of the retreat, Patrick R. Manning, Ph.D., Associate Professor and Chair of Pastoral Theology, led a lectio divina session, on October 1, 2022.

The retreat featured a public talk by renowned speaker and author Deacon James Keating, Ph.D., titled "Aflame with the Eucharist: 'We Cannot But Speak...'" at St. Mary's Abbey, Morristown, NJ, on Saturday, October 1, 2022. Drawing from Acts 4:20, "...we cannot but speak of what we have seen and heard," this presentation considered how the Eucharist, the Sacrament of Love, ignites evangelization within the "nooks and crannies of secular culture." Deacon Keating's presentation drew together 150 participants including deacons, wives of deacons, clergy, religious personnel, and others from the Archdiocese of Newark and the Dioceses of Paterson, Metuchen, and Trenton. The morning began with an introduction and welcome by Deacon Andrew E. Saunders, M.A. '08, Director of the Center for Diaconal Formation, and an opening prayer by Reverend Christopher M. Ciccarino, K.C.H.S., S.S.L., S.T.D., Associate Dean for Seminary and Academic Studies.

More information on the talk can be found at <https://www.shu.edu/theology/news/lecture-highlights-deacons-as-messengers-of-the-faith.cfm>
