Thank you, Mom, Dad, and sister, for everything. Mom, you have been my biggest supporter and pushed me always to be my best; you taught me the importance of hard work, dedication, and striving for excellence. Dad, you have taught me the power of unfailing persistence, that no obstacle is too big to overcome. Sister, you have been my best friend through it all; you have been my sounding board and my partner in crime. Without you all, I wouldn't have become who I am today. I Love You, Karen Anwar Wagieh

Dear Family, Your love and support have helped me to become the person I am today, and I know that I wouldn't be where I am without you. Whether it's a listening ear, a helping hand, or a shoulder to cry on, you have always been there for me, and I can never thank you enough for that. So, thank you, from the bottom of my heart, for everything that you do. For every sacrifice ever made. You are my family, my rock, my everything, and I love you all more than words can express.

Dear Mom and Dad, All of my life you have always told me I could do or be whatever I wanted to be. You allowed me to dream big and pushed me to pursue anything I was passionate about. You taught me the importance and value of an education and gave me the opportunity to have a great one, which I am eternally grateful for. You both worked so hard all of your life to make my dream of graduating from Seton Hall come true. You have not only supported me academically, but in every aspect of life. I could never be where and who I am today, without you. You make me so proud and I hope that I make you just as proud. You are significant part of my journey and who I am and because of that, this great accomplishment is as much yours as it is mine. We did it together. Mama, I cannot express how much your support means to me. Every sacrifice does not go unnoticed, and I am so honored to be your daughter. Tata, you are one of my biggest inspirations. You lead by example, and I would not be where I am without you. Gio, I love you buddy and keep reaching for the stars. You can do and be anyone you want in this world. Petey, thank you for the support and always helping me with my car troubles. Tita, you are the definition of strength and are the best “crazy grandma” ever. You all are my best friends, and I would not be me without each of you. Thank you and love you always, Julie

I am blessed to have such a supportive family that listens to me through all my overthinking and late-night ramblings. I couldn't have made it without you! I praise God for every opportunity and through every sleepless study session. To my mom, dad, sister, and puppylicious Amigo, thank you always for loving and encouraging me! XoxoOxXo

Dear mom, Thank you for your hard work - you have showed me what true perseverance can do in one's life. You have showed me how much I deserve to be loved, successful, and happy. I will never forget the sacrifices you've made and the struggles you have overcome for your children. Although you did not get to have your own graduation moment, building a better life for me, I dedicate my degree to you. Congrats on obtaining a Bachelor's degree, Laura! Thank you for being my mother.

Dear Family, Thank you for showing me so much love, support, and guidance in following my dreams. I will forever cherish the unbreakable bond this family has, the trips to Wildwood, and the laughter that fills the house at family occasions. I love you all — Dad, Marielle, Bill, Rat, Alison, Patrick, my grandparents, my aunts and uncles, my cousins, and most importantly, my Mom. Thank you for sticking by my side, encouraging me to always be myself, and helping me achieve my goals. I wouldn't be here without you. Always protect the ball.

Dear Family, Thank you for your unwavering support over the last four years! I appreciate it more than I'll ever be able to express. You have cheered me on during my successes and helped me through some of my biggest challenges. I always felt you there with me even with the distance and it made me feel so much less alone. I love you all and I am so grateful for all of the love you have given me! With Love, Kacie
