

The Department of History & the

G. K. Chesterton Institute for Faith & Culture present:

St. Thérèse of Lisieux and the Second World War

Our Speaker

APRIL 30TH, 2018 | 4–6 PM

FAHY HALL | ROOM 307

Professor
Vesna Drapac
University of Adelaide

European Catholic life during the Second World War has often been presented—misleadingly—as a story of heroic resistance or compromised collaboration. Looking at popular devotion to St. Thérèse of Lisieux, one of the most beloved of all 20th century saints, Vesna Drapac proposes a much more subtle reading of Catholic responses to the challenges of total war.

All are welcome. Refreshments will be served.
